During March break, December break and summer break, the IT Support Specialists and the Information Systems Administrator and Design Officer will be allowed to work a modified or flex work week on a mutually agreed schedule.

In recognition of the fact that this classification may have travel responsibilities which may necessitate travel outside normal work hours, such additional time will be banked at the applicable overtime rate and such time will be used during the March break, Christmas break and the summer break.

It is agreed that all overtime, other than travel time, worked by IT Support Specialists will be accumulated at the rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) times the regular rate for all hours in excess of their regularly scheduled hours.

- (c) Each normal work day shall include a one (1) hour unpaid meal break.

Overtime shall be rounded up to the nearest quarter (1/4) hour when calculating overtime compensation.

- 9.8 (a) In situations other than those where Article (9.7) applies, where an Employee has left work for the day and is requested to and agrees to come back for work which occurs before the Employee's next scheduled work, such Employee shall be paid the greater of four (4) hours straight time pay or time and one-half for all time worked.
- (b) There shall be no guaranteed four (4) hours pay (as per "a" above) if the Employee is informed of such work and its starting time before the Employee has left work on the Employee's last scheduled shift prior to the unscheduled work.

- 9.9 Where the Employee is required to work at home by telephone, as a service to the Employer, the Employee shall be compensated at the rate of one and one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay for the time spent on the telephone for the Employer, rounded to the nearest half (1/2) hour.

- 10.3 If a paid holiday falls during the Employee's scheduled vacation period, the Employee shall be credited with an additional vacation day.

- (c) 10.5 month employees with vacation entitlement in excess of six (6%) percent will have the option of taking that entitlement in excess of six (6%) percent in vacation days rather than wages. Should an Employee choose to take the vacation days, rather than the increased percentage of vacation pay, they shall communicate this request to the Employer, no later than June 30th, immediately preceding the vacation year.
- (d) In the ninth year of service, after the anniversary date of hiring, a 10.5 month employee shall be entitled to a portion of the four and one half (4.5) extra vacation days for that vacation year.

ARTICLE 12 - SICK LEAVE PROVISIONS

- 12.1 Sick leave with pay is granted against accumulated credits. Sick leave is available as a form of insurance to provide protection for an Employee from loss of earnings due to illness or injury which prevents an Employee from performing work for the Employer and for which compensation is not payable under the Workers' Compensation Act.
- 12.2 (a) Employees shall earn sick leave credits at the rate of one and one half (1.5) days per month of active service to a maximum sick leave accumulation of one hundred ninety-five (195) days.

Employees shall be allotted their full amount of days for the year in September and be permitted to use them any time during their regularly scheduled year. If the Employee leaves the employ of the Employer, and if they have used more days than they have earned before their departure then the Employer can make deductions from any monies owing the Employee upon departure.

12.3 A deduction shall be made from accumulated sick leave of all normal working days (exclusive of Holidays) absent for sick leave.

12.4 (a) An Employee may be required to produce a medical Request for Medical Information Form for a period of absence for which sick leave is claimed:

- (ii) where the Employer reasonably believes that the Employee is misusing sick leave credits and has provided the Employee with advance notice of the requirement to provide a certificate.

If the advance notice referred to above is not written notice, the Employer will confirm in writing the requirement to provide a certificate.

(b) Such certificate shall be from a qualified medical practitioner chosen by the Employee and shall notify the Employer whether or not the Employee has been ill, whether or not the illness prevented the Employee from coming to work and when the Employee may return to work. The certificate shall not identify the nature of the Employee's illness, unless otherwise decided by the Employee.

(c) Where Article 12.04(a)(ii) applies, the Employer may require an Employee to be examined by a mutually agreed alternate medical practitioner or, if the Employer and the Employee are unable to agree, the Employee will designate three (3) medical practitioners.

The Employer may reject up to two of the three medical practitioners designated by the Employee. The Employee shall be examined by one of the medical practitioners not rejected by the Employer. The certificate from the medical practitioner shall advise the Employer whether the Employee has an illness, which requires absence from work. However, the report shall be in general terms and shall not identify the nature of the Employee's illness, unless otherwise decided by the Employee.

- (d) Where pursuant to this Agreement an Employee is required to submit medical certificates or reports, or where an examination is required, the Employer shall be responsible for paying the full cost of any such examinations, medical certificate, forms or reports. The cost of providing a medical certificate shall be at the Employer's time and expense.
- 12.5 Employees who are ill shall endeavor to notify the Employer of the expected duration of the illness as early as possible, and shall endeavor to give the Employer the maximum possible notice of their return to work.
- 12.6 Upon return from a short-term illness or an illness of an extended period, the Employer will make reasonable accommodation to accommodate an Employee with light duties, as per Board policy and procedures. Light duties can include a reduction in hours as well as responsibilities.
- 12.7 (a) Where an illness is considered by the Employer or Local to be caused due to the abuse of alcohol or other drugs, the Employer may direct the Employee to undergo a medical examination by a medical doctor or other health care professional who specializes in the treatment of alcohol and drug problems. An Employee directed to undergo such examination, shall be granted leave with pay to attend the examination. Where the Employee in question is requested by the Employer, and voluntarily elects to undertake a full treatment and rehabilitation program approved by the Employer, the Employee shall be granted entitlement to utilize accumulated sick leave in accordance with this Article.
- (b) Nothing in Article 12.7(a) shall be interpreted to restrict the Employer's right to discipline, independent of such treatment program.

ARTICLE 13 - SENIORITY

- 13.1 (a) Seniority is defined as an Employee's length of service with the Employer, since the Employee's most recent Date of Hire as an Employee in the bargaining unit less periods of time for which seniority does not accumulate pursuant to this Agreement.
- (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, seniority shall not accumulate (but shall not be lost) when the Employee is on an unpaid leave of absence for more than one (1) year.
- (c) When an Employee works in a term position that is consecutive with the date of hire into a permanent position, that Employee's seniority and service will be retroactive to the start of the term date upon successful completion of the probationary period.

- 13.2 The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which the Employee's service with the Employer commenced. Where two or more Employees commenced work on the same date, and have the same total accumulated seniority, preference shall be given to the Employee with the higher last digit of the Employee's Social Insurance Number. If the tie remains unbroken, the higher of the last two digits shall be used. Present potential seniority conflicts will be identified and dealt with through the same mechanism prior to completing the seniority list and thereafter using the same procedure. An up-to-date seniority list as of December 31 shall be provided to the Union and posted annually in the work place by February 15. Any objections to the seniority list must be made within forty-five (45) days of posting. If no objection is made, the list is deemed to be correct in respect to that Employee and no further challenge may be made.
- 13.3 An Employee's seniority will be lost (and the Employee's employment therefore terminated) when:
- (a) the Employee is discharged for just cause and not reinstated;
 - (b) the Employee resigns and does not withdraw the Employee's resignation within three (3) days;
 - (c) the Employee fails to return to work while on recall within seven (7) days after notification has been sent to the Employee by registered mail, but, if within the seven (7) day period, the Employee notifies the Employer of the Employee's intention to accept such recall, the Employee shall then be allowed two (2) weeks, if employed elsewhere, from the date of such notice of acceptance to report for duty as set forth above;
 - (d) the Employee is laid off for more than two (2) years;
 - (e) the Employee is not able to return to the Employee's position after thirty (30) months from the final payment of salary and wages and is not receiving Workers' Compensation and is still not able to return to work; and
 - (f) the Employee retires.

If the Employee returns to the employ of the Employer after losing seniority pursuant to this Article, the Employee's seniority will not be restored.

ARTICLE 14 - PROBATIONARY EMPLOYEES

- (a) Probationary Employees will receive an oral evaluation at thirty (30) days, a written evaluation at sixty (60) days and a final written evaluation at the expiry of the probationary period.
 - (b) The parties agree that the purpose of the probationary period is to provide the Employer with the opportunity to assess the new Employee's suitability for ongoing employment with the Employer, and at any time during the probationary period the Employee may be terminated.
 - (c) A Probationary Employee shall be entitled to all the benefits and rights contained in this Agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions relating to such benefits and rights except as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

 - (g) Probationary Employees shall have the right to grieve.
 - (h) If a Probationary Employee is disciplined or dismissed, it shall be deemed to be for just cause and the Board of Arbitration or single Arbitrator shall not have the power to substitute any lesser discipline or penalty.
- 14.2 A Probationary Employee discharged during the probationary period for unsatisfactory work performance shall be given ten (10) calendar days notice of discharge or pay in lieu of notice.

- 14.3 If an Employee is recalled to the same position after the summer break, the summer break will not be considered a break in the probationary period.

However, if the Employee returns to a different position after the summer break the Employee must serve the complete probationary period but for seniority purposes service will begin upon the date of the first hire.

- 14.4 A Term Employee who becomes a Permanent Employee, in the same position, at the expiration of the term shall be credited with the hours worked in the term position towards the probationary period.

ARTICLE 15 - JOB POSTING AND STAFF CHANGES

- 15.1 When a vacancy in the bargaining unit arises, the Employer will, within seven (7) days, advise the Local Presidents and NSGEU Employee Relations Officer of whether and/or when the vacancy will be posted together with information as to any interim measures to be taken with respect to the vacancy.

When a vacancy in the bargaining unit is to be filled, the Employer shall post notice of the position on the Board's website for a minimum of five (5) working days. Applications for such vacancies shall be submitted through the on-line application system. Those technically unable to apply online are required to contact the Human Resources Departments for assistance.

"Term Employees" will not have recall rights, layoff rights, seniority rights, and will not have the advantage of their term qualifications being considered as time which will "immediately" qualify them for a permanent position while working in a term position.

Term employees will only be considered for bargaining unit positions once it has been deemed that there are no permanent eligible employees, but given preference over external candidates once they have completed the probationary period.

- 15.2 If the posting is for a Term Position:
- (a) If the term is for a period of less than one hundred ten (110) working days, no Employee in the bargaining unit can apply;
 - (b) If the term is for a period of one hundred ten (110) working days or more, any Employee in the bargaining unit can apply and if a permanent bargaining unit employee fills the position they can work in that position until the incumbent returns.

If the term position is extended beyond the end of the first year then the term position will be reposted if the position is held by an employee who is not a permanent employee. The Employer and the Union may agree to extend the term of the non-permanent employee;

- (c) At the conclusion of the leave the permanent employee has the right to return to their original position;
- (d) If the position is vacated by the incumbent, the replacement bargaining unit employee will be able to apply for the posted vacancy and remain in the position until the position is filled; or
- (e) The vacant position will be posted.

Any subsequently created term vacancy need not be posted and may be filled by the Employer.

- 15.3 The posting will contain a general job description, qualifying requirements, rate of pay, and hours of work, commencement date and other relevant information.
- 15.4 Subject to Articles 15.1 and 15.8, the Employer shall have the right to fill the position on a temporary basis until a permanent appointment is made.

Where more than one qualified employee works at a single location all hours created by the absence of the full-time employee will be offered to qualified part-time employees or qualified full-time circuit employees (by seniority) who also work at that location before a substitute is offered the work.

- 15.5 In filling a vacancy in an existing or new position, the candidate's skills, qualifications, and ability, to perform all of the required functions of the work in question within a reasonable familiarization period shall be the primary factors assessed and determined by the Employer; provided, however, that where all of those factors are determined by the Employer to be relatively equal, seniority will govern.
- 15.6 The Employer may advertise vacancies for persons outside the bargaining unit concurrently with the internal posting process described in this Article, but no consideration shall be given to any external applications until the Employer has fully processed all applications from all Employees in the bargaining unit and found no suitable applicant. If the Employer considers outside applications the Presidents will be informed of the reasons prior to filling the positions.
- 15.7 After a position is posted, the position will be awarded to the successful applicant as soon as operationally possible. If there is a significant delay in the commencement date of the position, the reason will be communicated to the successful applicant and to the Local President.

After filling a job vacancy, the Employer will advise the unsuccessful applicants as to the name of the successful applicant.

- 15.8 For permanent positions all vacancies and all subsequently created vacancies shall be posted.
- 15.9 If the qualifications for a job, which has been posted, are changed after the job has been posted and before it is filled, the job shall be posted again setting forth the revised qualifications before an appointment is made.
- 15.10 Prior to filling a vacancy, reasonable consideration will be given to an applicant who does not possess the required qualifications, but is in the process of attaining such qualifications. Such Employee will be given a reasonable period to attain the required qualifications and the right to return to the Employee's former position if the qualifications are not attained within such time.
- 15.11 (a) The Employer shall have the right to transfer Employees before posting vacancies as it deems appropriate to maintain efficient operations, but shall not require an Employee to accept a transfer without the Employee's consent, which would require the Employee to travel in excess of thirty- two (32) additional kilometres (twenty (20) miles) (one way distance) than what is currently traveled to the Employee's present work location.
- (b) The restriction in Article 15.11(a) shall not apply to a circuit administrative assistant who is compensated financially for travel from the administrative assistant's "base" school to other assigned schools.
- (c) If an Employee is assigned a vacant position, which has a lower salary than that of the Employee's former classification, the salary of the Employee shall be "red-circled" for a period of one-year.
- 15.12 When an Employee is the successful applicant, such Employee shall be placed in the position on a trial basis for an established period not to exceed sixty (60) working days. If the individual proves unsatisfactory during the trial period, or if the Employee requests then the Employee shall be returned to the Employee's former position, wage or salary rate, without loss of seniority.
- 15.13 Where technological changes cause the elimination of positions within the bargaining unit, the Board shall make every effort to retain regular Employees if jobs are eliminated by the change and, where feasible, shall provide training to qualify such Employees for other positions, which are available. Employees shall be given a reasonable period of time during which they may have an opportunity to acquire the necessary skill.

- 15.14 From time to time the Employer may request Employees to enroll in job related courses or programs. In such cases the tuition and related expenses shall be paid by the Employer. There shall be no interruptions to the Employee's salary or benefits.
- 15.15 The employer shall provide copies of all Board Approved Appointments to the Local President(s).

- (c) When schools are scheduled for closure the administrative personnel are transferred to the new location with the majority of students with no loss or reduction in secretarial assistance to them then secretarial/clerical Employees will also be transferred and after the transfer has been completed, reductions will be done by seniority. Should this transfer result in the new location having a surplus of Employees, staff reductions would occur pursuant to Article 16.6.
- (d) Where an Employees position is relocated, the Employee shall be offered the position in the new location. The Employee may decline the offer in which case the Employee will be served with a layoff notice and have the right to exercise their rights under the provisions of this Article 16.

AND

THE NOVA SCOTIA GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES UNION
(Hereinafter called the "Union")

Process for Transfers of IT Staff

The following process has been communicated to and agreed upon by all Technology staff, their management team and the NSGEU representative. This process will be effective October 1, 2008.

Permanent Vacancies

- When a permanent vacancy occurs, and expression of interest is offered to Permanent IT staff concurrently with an external posting. Probationary employees may apply for transfer, but cannot move until their probationary period is complete.
- The vacancy will be posted externally without identifying a specific region to allow flexibility and reduce the time required to fill the position.
- The Employer may choose to delay the transfer until July 1 of the following year, to create minimum disruption in the school during the regular year.

Leaves of Absence

- When an employee applies for a leave coinciding with a school year, expressions of interest will be offered to Permanent IT staff. Requests will be granted on the basis of seniority. At the end of the leave, each employee will revert to their original territory.
- When a leave occurs throughout the school year, expressions of interest will be offered to all Permanent employees. At the employer's discretion, based on the needs of each territory, the transfer may occur immediately, or may be postponed until the beginning of the next school year.
- The transfer will remain in effect until the end of the school year following the return of the employee on leave. If the employee returns prior to the end of the school year, that Employee will fill the temporary vacancy until the following July 1. At that time, everyone will revert to their original territories.

- If the employee resigns during the leave, the employee filling the position on the temporary basis will be given the first option to remain at that territory. If that Employee declines, the Employee will revert to their original position and the process for permanent vacancies will be followed.
- Whenever a leave of absence ends throughout the school year, the employee requesting the leave will be notified that they may have to return to a temporary position until July 1, or following Christmas break, following their date of return.
