 - d. The Employer acknowledges that it shall obtain the consent of the Union with respect to the employment of summer students or grant workers who are expected to perform work of the bargaining unit. The Employer shall make the decision as to whether the damage occurred in the course of the Employee's duties.

ARTICLE 7 - PROBATIONARY EMPLOYEES

- 7.01 The probationary period is an evaluation period used to provide the Employer with the opportunity to assess the probationary Employee's long term suitability for on-going regular employment.
- 7.02 Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, newly hired Employees shall be on probation subject to the following terms and conditions:
 - a. An Employee newly hired shall be on probation for a period of ninety (90) days of actual work from the date of hire to such position.

- 19.02 The payments in June of any year shall be adjusted to ensure that such payments represent the difference between the applicable earned income and the amount which had been paid commencing with the second Thursday in August of the preceding year, minus authorized deductions.
- 19.03 Notwithstanding any provision herein, any overpayment made to an Employee who will not be returning to the employ of the Employer for the next school year shall be deducted in full no later than the last pay period prior to June 30th. The scheduled repayment of any overpayment of an Employee who will be returning to the employ of the Employer in the next school year shall be scheduled with equal payments over a repayment term by December 31 each year. Undue hardship will be taken into consideration on a case-by-case basis.
- 19.04 Employees who begin employment between pay periods will be paid on the next regularly scheduled pay day or, where the Employer concludes time will not permit, then the following pay day with applicable adjustments provided the required paperwork is submitted from the Employee to the Board's central office.
- 19.05 All Employee deductions for benefits for school-based and 10-month Employees shall be made in equal deductions from all pay periods during the period from September 1st of one year to June 30th of the following year.
- 19.06 Employees who leave the employment of the Employer will have all necessary deductions made from their paycheck no later than the last regular paycheck paid to such Employee.
- 19.07 a. The hourly rates of pay as set forth in Schedule "A" of this Collective Agreement shall apply.
- b. Employees in the bargaining unit will receive the applicable bargaining unit rate for all hours worked including casual hours in their classification.

- 19.08 An Employee who is required for a period of more than ten (10) consecutive working days to do the work of a higher-rated classification within the bargaining unit shall receive the minimum rate for that higher position, such rate to be adjusted retroactively after completion of the ten (10) consecutive working day period.
- 19.09 The payroll period shall consist of 14 consecutive days, beginning Sunday and concluding Saturday, two weeks hence.
- 19.10 Until adjustments are otherwise required, the bi-weekly pay will be calculated by multiplying the anticipated bi-weekly regularly scheduled hours by the Employee's rate of pay.
- 19.11 The Employer agrees that during the life of the Collective Agreement, each Employee will be given access to a computer station and, with password protection, will be able to retrieve and print a statement of their earnings and deductions.

The Employer agrees to provide, as part of an in-service, a training component to assist all Employees with the introduction of this technology.

Employees shall have electronic access through the payroll self service model to all details related to her/his individual pay and benefits.

ARTICLE 20 – SENIORITY

- 20.01 Seniority shall denote the length of service, expressed in years, with the Employer. Length of service shall be calculated from the date of hire by the Employer to a regular full time or regular part time position.

Term Employees will not have their employment with the Employer counted as seniority within the bargaining unit nor will their name(s) be placed on the seniority list. However, if a Term Employee is the successful candidate for a regular full time or regular part time position, their seniority will be recognized to the beginning of the Term Position provided that there has been no break in service, and the employee has successfully completed a probationary period in accordance with Article 7 – Probationary Employees.

- 20.02 a. The Employer shall maintain one seniority list for all regular full time and regular part time Employees within each classification, showing the name of the Employee, employment status, employee classification, work location and seniority.
- b. The Employer shall, by October 30th each year, update and post by electronic means the seniority list for each classification as of the preceding June 30th. On or before November 30th of each year, any Employee may challenge her/his position on the seniority list as far back as the previously approved list, by filing a written notice of objection with both the Local and the Human Resources Department. The Employer and the Local shall then resolve the matter after hearing the Employee's representations. In the event the Employer and the Local are unable to reach agreement on the list, the matter shall be referred to arbitration, or the Employer shall have the option to refer the matter to the Union for a unilateral determination by the Union. After all such challenges have been settled, the seniority list shall be deemed approved by both the Employer and the Local and shall be conclusive evidence of the seniority of such Employee, until such time as a new seniority list is updated and approved.

The Employer agrees to post an electronic copy of the corrected/amended seniority list in the same manner as the original seniority list was distributed.

- 20.03 In cases where Employees have the same seniority according to the seniority list, such tie shall be broken by giving preference to the Employee whose last digit of her/his social insurance number is higher. If the digits are equal, then preference shall be given to the Employee whose last 2 digits are higher.
- 20.04 a. An Employee who accepts employment with the Employer outside the bargaining unit shall retain and accrue seniority for a period of 12 months subsequent to date of leaving the bargaining unit. Such period may be extended with consultation amongst the Employer, the Union and the affected Employee and such extension will not be unreasonably denied, but shall not exceed an additional 12 months. During the extended period in excess of the 12 months subsequent to leaving the bargaining unit, the Employee shall continue to pay union dues in order to retain but no longer accrue their seniority in the bargaining unit; failure to do so will mean all seniority shall lapse.
- b. Any laid-off employee offered work normally performed by a casual employee shall do so without affecting their 24 consecutive month period of layoff.
- 20.05 An Employee's seniority shall be lost, the Employee's name will be removed from the seniority list and the Employee's employment therefore terminated when:
- a. The Employee is discharged for just cause and not reinstated.
- b. Resignation by the Employee, provided such action is not revoked by the Employee within 48 hours.
- c. The Employee is on layoff or an expired authorized leave of absence and fails to respond to a notice, sent via registered mail, to return to work within 7 days after notification has been sent to the Employee.
- d. An employee on Layoff will have a maximum of twenty-four (24) hours to provide notice of acceptance of a recall to any job. If employed elsewhere, the Employee shall then be allowed up to two (2) weeks from the date of such notice of acceptance to report for work.
- e. The Employee is laid-off for a period in excess of 24 consecutive months.

- f. The Employee is absent from work in excess of three (3) consecutive working days without notifying the Employer. The employee may be reinstated if they establish to the satisfaction of the Employer that their absence arose from a cause beyond their control and it was not possible for the employee to notify the Employer of the reason for their absence.
 - g. The Employee retires.
- 20.06 An employee who is absent due to illness, worker's compensation or long-term disability, shall retain her/his right to her/his position (provided such position exists) for two (2) years. The Employer may fill the position on a temporary or term basis during the 2 year period. An employee returning to work after this 2 year period shall be offered placement options as set out in the Layoff and Recall Article. In the event an employee is no longer able to document her/his absence as a result of an illness, worker's compensation or long-term disability, she/he will return to work or shall lose her/his seniority and employment status.

ARTICLE 21- LAY-OFF AND RECALL

- 21.01 Prior to any lay-off decision, the Employer will examine potential advantages of natural attrition and retirement. A lay-off can include a reduction in regular hours, or an elimination of a position. For Educational Assistants, a layoff occurs when, as a result of the annual staffing process, a regular full time or regular part time Employee is/remains surplus at the end of June.
- 21.02 a. Both parties recognize that job security should increase in proportion to length of service. Where operational requirements permit, and where the Employee has the necessary skill and ability, in the event of lay-off, Employees shall be laid off within classification in reverse order of seniority provided the more senior Employee(s) have the necessary skill and ability for the positions which remain at the site. A more senior employee within that Classification and site may accept a voluntary layoff in place of a more junior employee in that Classification and site provided the remaining Employee(s) meet the necessary skill and ability (due to bona fide requirements) remaining at site. If there is more than one volunteer, the most senior Employee may accept the voluntary layoff. An Employee who accepts a voluntary layoff does not have displacement rights, only recall rights as set out in this Article.
- b. Laid off employees will be given first opportunity for recall to vacant regular and/or vacant term positions within their classification of equivalent or less hours for which they have the necessary skill and ability and in the order of their seniority in accordance with this agreement. Thereafter, all remaining vacant positions will be posted within the bargaining unit. No new employee shall be hired in a classification until all Employees in that classification on the recall list or Employee's who have accepted reduced hours have had an opportunity to vacancies.

- c. If the Employee accepts a term position via recall, they will not be offered any other term positions, unless for a gain in hours. However, they will be offered Regular positions in accordance with this Article. Movement to such positions will be as soon as operationally reasonable and practical.
- d. In the event existing schools, central or field offices are combined placing all Employees in a single location and the Employer identifies a surplus position for reduction, Employees in the same classification affected by the combination will be laid off in reverse order of seniority within classification at the new site. Where there is more than one Employee at the work site/location within the same classification identified by the Employer for reduction, the most junior Employee in the classification will be the identified Employee subject to lay-off. A more senior Employee within that classification and site may accept a voluntary layoff in place of a more junior Employee in that classification and site provided the remaining Employee(s) have the necessary skill and ability (due to bona fide requirements) for the positions remaining.

21.03 Both the Union and the Employer recognize the operational requirement to minimize a rippling effect of lay-offs as much as possible and both parties agree to meet to discuss lay-off procedures prior to implementation of any actual lay-offs.

21.04 a. The Employee, other than Information Technology staff, in receipt of a layoff notice is entitled to the following options:

- i. To accept any vacant regular or vacant term position within the same classification of equivalent hours within 25 kilometers of the laid off employee's last school or work site for which they have the necessary skill and ability by training and experience (due to bona fide requirements). Only if there are no such positions, the Employee may then choose to:
 - (a) accept layoff; or
 - (b) accept any vacant regular or vacant term position of equivalent or less hours; or
 - (c) displace the least senior regular or probationary status employee on the seniority list within the same classification and equivalent hours within 25 kilometers of the laid off employee's last school or work site, if one exists; or
 - (d) Only if no position in (c) exists, the employee may choose to displace the least senior regular or probationary status employee on the seniority list within the same classification and less hours within 25 kilometers of the laid off employee's last school or work site, if one exists.

- 21.06 It shall be the duty of every Employee on lay-off to advise the Employer of current mailing address, Board email address and phone number where the Employee can be reached. Failure to do so, or maintain current information, shall constitute a waiver of the opportunity for recall, until such information is provided.
- 21.07 A school-based Employee laid-off at the end of a regular school term shall be deemed to have been given notice of recall for the first day of the following school year, unless otherwise advised.
- 21.08 a. Except for matters reasonably beyond the control or fore-knowledge of the Employer, the Employer shall notify the Union and the designated Employees at least fifteen (15) days prior to the effective date of any proposed mid-school year lay-off and thirty (30) days notice for any end of school year layoffs. Where such advance notice is not so provided, the Employer agrees to advise the Union before notice is given to the affected Employees.
- b. Where the Employer is unable to provide such advance notice, the Employer shall have the right to re-assign such Employees to other duties, either within or outside classification, but within the bargaining unit, during the balance of the period for which 15 days' notice was not provided. Where operationally reasonable and practical to do so, such reassignment to other duties will be done at the Employee's current work site.
- c. The procedural requirements of Article 21 do not apply to normal lay-offs of school-based Employees in July and August.
- d. The foregoing provisions apply to Employees hired into Regular full time or Regular part time positions who have not yet completed their Probationary Period, except that the advance notice required shall be at least 5 work days.
- 21.09 The Employer will provide laid off members of the bargaining unit first opportunity to perform work outside the bargaining unit but within the laid off employee's classification that is normally performed by Casual Employees. In order to be considered for such work, the laid off Employee, within thirty (30) days of notification of layoff, will advise the Employer of their interest to perform said work.
- 21.10 Where an Employee's position is relocated, such Employee shall be offered the position in the new location.
- 21.11 The Employer shall give notice of recall either by direct telephone communication or by electronic means.
- 21.12 Positions available for recall will be posted electronically for two (2) working days. By making application to recall positions in this process, the Employee acknowledges acceptance of the position, if the successful applicant. In exceptional circumstances, the Employer may schedule a meeting between the successful applicant and the immediate supervisor for the purposes of discussing the specifics of the position. If employed elsewhere, the Employee shall then be allowed up to two (2) weeks from the date of such notice of acceptance to report for work.

- 21.13 If the layoff lasts for more than twenty-four (24) consecutive months, without recall, the layoff shall become termination of employment and recall rights shall lapse.
- 21.14 Notwithstanding Article 21.13, acceptance of a term position shall extend the twenty-four (24) month layoff period by the length of the term position. A regular Employee who accepts a term position shall retain her/his status as a Regular Employee.
- 21.15 Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, an Employee who has had a reduction in hours may remain in that position at the reduced hours. If the Employer reinstates or increases the hours of the position, the incumbent employee may obtain the increased hours without competition.
- 21.16 Where Educational Assistant hours are reallocated once the staffing processes for the current or upcoming school year begins, the relocation amounts to a layoff at the reduced site. The position at the new location will be posted for recall purposes. The employee laid off by such a position relocation is not entitled to displacement opportunities rather entitled to apply for positions offered for recall.
- 21.17 All benefits for laid-off Employees will terminate upon the effective date of her/his layoff unless otherwise identified in this agreement.

TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

- 21.18 In this Article "Technological Change" means any change in:
- a. the introduction of equipment or processes materially different in nature, type or quantity from that previously utilized;
 - b. work methods, organization, operations or processes materially affecting one or more Employees, that could reasonably be expected to adversely affect the hours of work available to an Employee in the bargaining unit, or could reasonably be expected to result in a lay-off of a regular full time or regular part time member of the bargaining unit.
- 21.19 Employee who is laid off or terminated as a consequence of technological change shall be entitled to exercise placement rights pursuant to Article 21. Prior to implementation of any technological change, the Employer agrees to consult with the Union with respect to such change, in an attempt to minimize any loss of job security and to explore opportunities for retraining of existing members of the bargaining unit who may be negatively impacted by such technological change.

21.20 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Collective Agreement, the Employer and the Union may amend the layoff and recall processes as set out above provided such amendments are mutually agreed. In the event the Employer is considering layoffs within the bargaining unit, representatives of the Joint Consultation Committee will discuss considerations associated with the layoff and develop a fair and reasonable process and procedure for implementation of layoff. In the event that agreement is reached through this JCC discussion, said agreed-to provisions will be adopted. Likewise, in the event that no agreement is reached through the JCC discussion, status quo language as set out in Article 21 stands.

ARTICLE 22 – STAFFING

- 22.01 a. When a vacancy or new position occurs within the bargaining unit which the Employer intends to fill, the Employer agrees to post the vacancy on the CCRSB Website. Such posting shall be for a period of five (5) working days. The posting will include position title, nature of the position, the necessary skills and abilities required for the position, qualifications as required for the position, anticipated hours of work, anticipated start date, anticipated end date if applicable, location and rate of pay. Nothing in such job posting shall be deemed to be a guarantee of job conditions.
- b. Employees wishing to be considered for a posted position will be required to complete an online application before the expiration of the five (5) working day posting period, clearly setting forth the required information.
- 22.02 a. For the purposes of filling a vacancy, including any promotion, selection shall be made upon the objective criteria of experience, job performance, ability and qualifications. The Employer shall determine the weight to be given to each such criteria. The Employer shall be required to apply such objective criteria in the same fashion to all applicants in a fair and reasonable manner. Following the Employer's assessment of each applicant the Employer shall select the most qualified candidate. Provided that when other factors are relatively equal between or amongst the most qualified applicants, seniority shall prevail.

The employer may advertise vacancies for persons outside the bargaining unit concurrently with the internal posting process described in this Article, but no consideration shall be given to any external applications until the Employer has reviewed all applications from Employees in the bargaining unit and determined that there is no internal applicant who has met the objective criteria as per Article 22.02(a) above.

In filling vacancies, the position will be awarded to the successful applicant as soon as operationally possible. If there is a significant delay in the start date of the position, the reasons will be communicated to the Employee and the Union.

The Board shall post the names of the successful applicants on the Board's website within twenty (20) days of the approval of the successful applicant.

- b. Where an appointment is made in accordance with this article, the Employer shall, where requested by the Employee, give an unsuccessful applicant for a position the reasons why she/he was unsuccessful and advise what that person might do to improve job opportunities in the future.
- c. Nothing in this Article shall restrict the Employer's right to determine whether operational requirements require filling of the position, or the Employer's right to temporarily fill an unfilled position (a position for which there is a returning incumbent) or a vacant position (a position for which there is no returning incumbent).
- d. Notwithstanding any of the above, the Employer may, by mutual agreement, award a position to the most senior internal applicant without conducting interviews. Such appointment shall be "without prejudice or precedent" to either party.

22.03 In the event of a transfer or promotion, the Employer shall have the right to place the successful applicant in the position on a trial period not exceeding 6 months. Conditional upon satisfactory service, such trial, transfer or promotion shall become permanent. In the event the Employer concludes that the successful Employee is unable to adequately perform the duties of the new position during the trial period, such Employee shall be returned to her/his former position without loss of seniority. The same shall apply to other Employees affected in secondary positions as a result of such return.

22.04 Any member of the bargaining unit assigned to a temporary acting position outside the bargaining unit shall accrue seniority and retain all benefits and other accruals under this Collective Agreement during such temporary assignment. Provided that such assignment outside the bargaining unit shall not exceed 12 months where created by a leave of absence, or 6 months otherwise, unless both parties hereto agree to such further extension.

22.05 Notwithstanding Article 8, Employer's Rights, the Employer may, in consultation with the Employee and the Union, in exceptional circumstances that will be explained to the Union, reassign an employee from one position/location to another within the employee's classification and hours of work. Prior to the employee reassignment, the Union will have an opportunity to present any alternatives it deems appropriate regarding the placement of the employee. The Employer will not transfer solely for disciplinary reasons or solely at the request of the Supervisor.

An Employee may request a reassignment, in writing with reasons for the request, from one assignment to another within her/his classification for either personal or medical reasons.

22.06 Any Employee covered by this Agreement who is temporarily assigned to another position for which the rate of pay is lower than the rate of pay for such Employee's regular position, shall not have the original regular rate of pay reduced while so temporarily employed.

- 22.07 If the qualifications for a job which has been posted are materially changed after the job has been posted but before it is filled, the job shall be posted again, setting forth the revised qualifications before an appointment is made.
- 22.08 The Employer shall consider requests made by suitably qualified Employees to exchange positions within classifications. To be considered, the exchange must adhere to the following conditions:
- i. all such requests shall be submitted in writing to the Coordinator of Human Resources;
 - ii. involve two (2) employees within the same classification and hours of work;
 - iii. have the approval of the immediate supervisors for the two positions.

The Employer agrees to evaluate the merits of the exchange and reply in writing within thirty (30) working days. With the consent of both the Employer and the Union, any such successful exchange may be declared permanent after a trial period of not less than ninety (90) working days.

Temporary exchange requests between employees within the same classification with different hours of work may also be considered by the Employer. The period of such temporary exchange shall not exceed one school year (for school-based employees) or 12 calendar months (for 12-month employees) from the date the exchange began.

Staffing Procedures – Educational Assistants

- 22.09 a. The Board shall make its reasonable best efforts by June 15 of each year to formulate a staffing proposal for the following school year. The Board will notify the Union if this is unattainable. The staffing proposal shall identify all vacant and term positions which are then known.
- b. Once the above noted staffing formula is known, within seven (7) working days, the Board shall post on the CCRSB website a list of all regular positions available for the upcoming school year. Regular status employees only shall be permitted to apply for these regular positions and shall have a maximum of two (2) days to make application for these positions. Employees who accept a position in this round are then ineligible to apply for another position unless such position would result in an increase in working hours.
- c. Following the completion of the above-noted transfer round, the Board shall post on the CCRSB website a list of all remaining regular positions (positions remaining unfilled from the transfer round described above plus any new regular positions that have resulted in the movement from the transfer round) and term positions. Only Regular status employees in receipt of a surplus notice or who have accepted a reduction in their regular hours shall be permitted to apply for these positions and shall have a maximum of two (2) days to make application for these positions. Employees who accept a position in this round are then ineligible to apply for another position unless such position would result in an increase in working hours.

- d. Following the completion of the second posting round (surplus round) as described above, the Board shall post on the CCRSB website a list of all remaining positions. Such positions will be posted as term positions and be only open to Regular status employees who are in receipt of a displacement/surplus notice or who have accepted a reduction in their regular hours and to external applicants in accordance with Article 22.02 above. Employees who accept a position in this round are then ineligible to apply for another position unless such position would result in an increase in working hours.
- e. At any time during the Educational Assistant staffing process, employees who accept a position in the above-mentioned posting rounds are ineligible to apply for another posted position unless such position would result in an increase in working hours.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Collective Agreement, the Employer and the Union may amend the EA Staffing processes as set out above provided such amendments are mutually agreed. In the event that EA staffing changes are to be discussed, representatives of the Joint Consultation Committee will discuss considerations associated with a fair and reasonable process and procedure for implementation. In the event that agreement is reached through this JCC discussion, said agreed-to provisions will be adopted. Likewise, in the event that no agreement is reached through the JCC discussion, status quo language as set out herein stands.

Expression of Interest – ITSS & RITSS Term Positions

- 22.10 Available term positions for Information Technology Support Specialists and Regional Information Technology Support Specialists will initially be offered to existing Bargaining Unit Information Technology Support Specialists (for ITSS term positions) and Regional Information Technology Support Specialists (for RITSS term positions) under an "Expression of Interest" for available vacancies. The internal process will attempt to fill the vacancy from within. The selection for the filling of the term position shall be upon the objective criteria of experience, job performance, qualifications, necessary skill and ability to immediately perform the requirements of the position and provided there is no discipline or performance related concern within the twelve (12) months preceding the Expression of Interest. When the above-noted factors are relatively equal between or amongst the employees who expressed interest, the employee with more seniority will be selected.

In the event a term position is not filled via an Expression of Interest, the position will be posted and filled in accordance with Article 22 – Staffing.

ARTICLE 23 - JOINT CONSULTATION COMMITTEE

- 23.01 The Joint Consultation Committee as in force at the signing of this Collective Agreement will continue.
- 23.02 The Committee shall be composed of an equal number of representatives from both the Employer and the Union, to a maximum of four from each Party. The Joint Consultation Committee will exchange information, ideas and opinions on educational and operational matters and will work cooperatively to deal with issues of common concern to both the Local and the Employer.
- 23.03 The Joint Consultation Committee will not be a forum for the discussion of grievances. The ERO from NSGEU is a member of the Joint Consultation Committee and shall participate at their discretion.
- 23.04 The Joint Consultation Committee does not have the power to amend, modify, delete or add to this Agreement.
- 23.05 The Committee shall meet at least three times during each school year, and such additional times as shall be mutually agreed upon by the Parties.
- 23.06 A Chairperson will be designated by both the Employer and the Union and the Chairperson will alternate preparing the agenda and presiding over the meeting. The recording of minutes shall be alternated between the Parties and the recorder shall be responsible for distributing the minutes to all committee members within two (2) weeks following the meeting. A copy of the minutes will be forwarded by the Chairperson to the Employee Relations Officer of NSGEU, and the Director of Human Resources Services.
- 23.07 Employees shall not suffer loss of pay or benefit for attendance at such meetings and the Employer will reimburse Committee members for mileage, as per Board guidelines, if applicable.
- 23.08 During the life of this Collective Agreement, representatives of CCRSB and NSGEU Local 71 – via JCC – will gather the wage and benefit information (total compensation) related to all CCRSB NSGEU classifications against other regional school boards. This information gathering is solely for information/review purposes. The parties recognize that there will be no funds attached to this exercise nor will this Collective Agreement be opened and/or adjusted as a result of this information gathering. It is also recognized that there is no intent to reclassify current positions as a result of this exercise.

ARTICLE 24 - DISCIPLINE, SUSPENSION AND DISCHARGE

- 24.01a. An Employee may be disciplined, suspended or discharged for just cause.
- b. Where an Employee is required to attend a scheduled disciplinary meeting with the Employer, prior to such meeting, the Employer shall advise the Employee that she has the right to be accompanied by an available Shop Steward or other representative of the Union.

- 24.02 An Employee shall be notified in writing of any disciplinary action, and such notification will be copied to the applicable Local President and the Employee Relations Officer within 48 hours of the Employer's decision.
- 24.03 Wherever reasonably practical, the Employer shall discuss with an Employee performance or behaviour problems, so that such Employee can be informed and permitted the opportunity of correction.
- 24.04 Whenever the Employer deems it necessary to censure an Employee, in a manner indicating that dismissal may follow any further infraction the Employer shall, within 10 days thereafter, give written particulars of such censure to the Employee, with notice to the applicable Local President and the ERO.

ARTICLE 25 - GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

- 25.01 a. In order to provide an orderly and speedy procedure for the settling of grievances, the Employer acknowledges the right of the Union to appoint or elect shop stewards, whose duties shall be to assist any Employee, whom the shop steward represents, in preparing and presenting the Employee's grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure. The Union agrees to appoint Union stewards who are reasonably accessible to Employees within each Family of Schools.
- b. The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the names of the Shop Stewards and Union Representatives who shall be responsible for the handling of grievances within the bargaining unit.
- 25.02 Where an aggrieved Employee has a dispute with the Employer regarding the application, interpretation, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, the dispute shall constitute a grievance and shall be resolved according to the procedures set forth in this Article.
- 25.03 a. In any situation where an Employee has a meeting with a representative of the Employer concerning a grievance, such Employee may make arrangements to be accompanied by an available shop steward or other Local representative. Such shop steward or Local representative may assist the Employee in preparing and presenting such grievance in accordance with this grievance procedure. In the event that an Employee refuses the right of Local representation, the Union shall be advised of the outcome of any such meeting with an Employee.
- b. In order that the work of the Employer shall not be unreasonably interrupted, no shop steward shall leave their work to assist in matters relating to grievance proceedings, without first obtaining the permission of their immediate supervisor. Such interruption of work shall only be requested where the Shop Steward concludes that the circumstances require immediate attention to assist the aggrieved Employee.

- c. In such instance, the Employer agrees that the Shop Steward shall not be hindered, coerced, restrained or interfered with in any way in the performance of such duties.
- d. Any such Employee leaving their work shall report to their supervisor upon return to work. In situations where such leave is authorized, the shop steward shall not suffer any loss of pay for any such reasonable authorized absence.

25.04 Either the Union or the Employer may request that either or both of Steps Two and Three be held by meeting in person, if the nature of the grievance so warrants. Otherwise, the grievance may be processed in writing.

25.05 Step One - Informal Complaint Resolution

The Employee shall discuss the matter complained of with the Employee's Immediate Supervisor within fifteen (15) working days of the time the Employee became aware of, or ought to have reasonably known, the circumstances giving rise to the grievance. The Employee may have a Steward present. The Immediate Supervisor shall render a decision within ten (10) working days of discussing the matter with the Employee.

25.06 Step Two

If the reply of the immediate supervisor is not acceptable to the Employee or if Step One was not followed, then the matter shall be forwarded to the applicable Coordinator of Human Resources, or designate, for a Step Two review within 10 working days of the time the Employee became aware of, or ought to have reasonably known, the circumstances giving rise to the grievance, or within not more than 10 working days of the Supervisor's reply or deemed reply in Step One. Such written grievance shall bear the signature of the Grievor, provide a summary of the facts giving rise to the grievance, the Article of the Agreement allegedly violated and the remedy sought. The grievance shall be on a grievance form approved by the Employer and Union. The applicable Coordinator of Human Resources, or designate, shall render a decision in writing within 10 working days, failing which the grievance shall be deemed denied.

25.07 Step Three

Failing settlement at Step Two, the Union may, within 10 working days of receipt of the Step Two decision, forward the grievance to the Director of Human Resources Services, or designate, who shall render a written decision within 10 working days of receipt of the grievance.

25.08 Step Four

Failing settlement at Step Three, the Union may, within 15 working days of receipt of the Step Three decision, give notice in writing to the Director of Human Resources Services, or designate, of its intention to refer the grievance to binding arbitration.

25.09 Failure to have a Union official present at any Step of the grievance procedure will not invalidate the grievance.

25.10 It is agreed that the Employer may submit to the Union any complaint with respect to the conduct of the Union, its officers or members, or any complaint regarding the interpretation, meaning, operation, application or alleged violation of this Agreement. Such complaint, if not resolved by oral discussion, shall be reduced to writing and forwarded to the Union Employee Relations Officer. Such Officer shall reply to the Employer's complaint in writing within 10 working days of receipt of the complaint. If the reply of the Officer is not acceptable to the Employer, the Employer may, within 10 days from the date the Employer receives the Officer's reply, give notice in writing to the Union of its intention to refer the complaint to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

25.11 A Union policy grievance, which is defined as an alleged violation of this Agreement, concerning more than one Employee in the bargaining unit, may be lodged by the Officer of the Union, or their designate, in writing, at Step Two of the grievance procedure at any time within 10 working days after the circumstances giving rise to the grievance occurred or originated. If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled, it may be processed to Step Three and to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this Article.
