- (a) "Bargaining Unit" consists of all Full-time, Regular Part-time and Sessional Employees employed by NSCAD University in the Bargaining Unit as described in L.R.B. order No. 3623 attached as Appendix A to this Agreement.
- (b) "Employer", "University" and "NSCAD University" mean the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design.
- (c) "Employee" means an Employee employed by the Employer in the Bargaining Unit Local 82.
- (d) "Union" means the Nova Scotia Government and General Employees Union.
- (e) "Regular Full-time Employee" means an Employee hired to work the normal full-time work hours set out in Article 24 and is not a Term Employee as per Article 2.01 (h).
- (f) "Regular Part-time Employee" means an Employee hired to work for hours and periods less than the normal full-time work hours and is not a Term Employee as per Article 2.01 (h).

For greater clarity, a "regular" member of the bargaining unit who applies for and receives a Term Appointment, retains their status as a Regular Employee and is a Regular Employee in a Term Position.

- (g) "Temporary Employee" means an Employee hired without the intention of becoming permanent, and who is employed for a specified period of time for a number of consecutive Working Days to fill a position which is vacant due to the absence of a Regular or Sessional Employee, through extended illness or accident, approved leave of absence, or where special circumstances such as moving or renovations normally between May 1 and August 31, indicate a need for temporary workers, of less than six (6) months duration. This period may be extended through mutual agreement of the Union and the Employer for a period of an additional six (6) months.

Temporary Employees are not included in the Bargaining Unit.

- (h) "Term Employee" means an Employee hired for a period in excess of six (6) months into a position of limited and set duration. Term Employees are members of the bargaining unit.

- (i) "Term Position" means a position that is for a defined period of time in excess of six (6) months and no longer than twelve (12) months for a specified project or to fill bargaining unit absences of greater than six (6) months. The period of a Term Position may be extended for an additional twelve (12) months with the approval of the Union.
- (j) "Agreement" shall mean the Collective Agreement between the NSGEU on behalf of Local 82 and the University.
- (k) "Immediate Supervisor" means personnel designated by the Employer who are responsible for the direct supervision of the work of another staff member or group of staff members.
- (l) "Casual Employee" means an Employee who is employed on an occasional but non-scheduled basis or whose consecutive Working Days do not exceed the maximum vacation entitlement of a Full-time Employee.

Casual Employees may be employed to replace Full-time and/or Part-time Employees who are absent from work due to short-term illness or accident, vacation, bereavement leave, statutory holidays, Union business, and emergencies.

Casual Employees are not members of the Bargaining Unit.

- (m) "Sessional Employee" means an Employee hired for an indefinite term who works on a scheduled basis for less than twelve (12) months per year (normally for the Fall and Winter semesters).

If the annual period of employment is extended on a permanent basis to a period of twelve (12) consecutive months, then the position shall become a Regular Full-time or Regular Part-time position depending upon the hours to be worked.

Where an external plan’s definition is inconsistent with this Collective Agreement, then the external plan’s definition will apply.
- (s) “Extra Work” means work which is performed outside the regular hours of work and which is paid for by a third party other than in accordance with the overtime provisions of this Agreement.

42.11 A grievance should not be defeated by formal or technical objections and the parties should allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of the grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute. However, if the grievant has not exercised due diligence in abiding by the applicable time limits, the grievance shall be considered abandoned and at an end.

- 43.05 Both parties understand that the Arbitration Board (or single Arbitrator) shall confine itself to the grievance submitted to arbitration and shall not determine any other issue(s) except that the Arbitration Board (or Arbitrator) shall have the power to determine whether any particular grievance is arbitrable.
- 43.06 Both parties understand that the Arbitration Board (or single Arbitrator) shall not alter, add to, amend, or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement.
- 43.07 Each party shall pay the fees and expenses of its nominee to the Arbitration Board and one-half of the fees and expenses of the Chairperson or single Arbitrator not paid by the Minister of Labour.
- 43.08 The time limits and procedures may be extended or modified by written agreement of both parties to this Agreement.

APPENDIX “C” - SUPPLEMENTARY EMPLOYMENT BENEFIT PLAN

Purpose

The purpose of the plan is to supplement Employment Insurance benefits paid during periods of pregnancy leave to Employees of NSGEU Local 82 of NSCAD University certified by the Nova Scotia Labor Relations Board.

Term of Agreement

The term of the plan will coincide with the term of the Collective Agreement signed _____ and all subsequent agreements which provide the leave to be supported under a similar plan. The plan will be effective on the date of signing of the current Collective Agreement between the parties.

Administration

The University will administer the plan and, subject to the provisions of the Collective Agreement and the provisions contained herein, will be the only authority for determining eligibility for benefits under the plan.

Plan Funding

The University's contribution to the plan will be paid from operating funds. A separate accounting will be maintained on all plan payments. Since no trust fund will be established, the Employees will have no vested interest in such a fund.

Eligibility

Any Employee, as per Article 32 of the Collective Agreement, will be eligible for benefits under the plan, provided the Employee has:

- (a) applied for the Employment Insurance benefits;
- (b) complied with the reporting requirements of Human Resources Development Canada and the University; and
- (c) qualified under the Employment Insurance Act for Employment Insurance benefits as determined by Human Resources Development Canada and supplementary benefits as outlined herein.

The Employee will be required to supply the Employer with proof that she qualifies for Employment Insurance benefits and is in receipt of such benefits.

An Employee disentitled or disqualified from receiving benefits is not eligible for Supplementary Employment Benefits under this plan.

Benefit

The benefit payable by the University under the plan is a semi-monthly amount, which combined with the Employment Insurance benefit and any other earnings will equal 95% of the Employee's normal pay over the period of pregnancy leave. Benefits will be paid as per Article 32 of the Collective Agreement.

All amounts paid under the plan will be subject to normal income tax deductions.

Benefit Non-Entitlement

1. Total benefits (including the supplementary payment by the Employer) are not payable for any period in which the Employee is disqualified or disentitled from receipt of benefits under the Employment Insurance Act as determined by Human Resources Development Canada.
2. Benefits are not payable if:

- (a) the Employee has been dismissed or suspended without pay as per Article 19 of the Collective Agreement;
- (b) the Employee has terminated her employment through resignation;
- (c) an application is made during a period when the Employee is currently on strike, participating in picketing or concerted work interruption;
- (d) the Employee is on an approved leave of absence without pay;
- (e) the Employee is receiving Insurance benefits under the University's Long Term Disability plan.

Application for Benefits

Notice shall be provided to the Employer as per the Collective Agreement. Application should also be made at the same time to Human Resources Development Canada so that, if the Employee qualifies for benefits, they may commence at the commencement of the leave(s).

A claimant for benefits under this plan must sign an undertaking with the University on a prescribed form (see end of this Appendix) providing that:

- (a) s/he will return to work on the Working Day immediately following the expiry date of the leave(s), or any authorized extension thereof, and
- (b) s/he will remain in the employ of the University for at least an equivalent number of weeks as the period of paid leave following the return to work, and
- (c) should s/he fail to return to work as provided under (a) above, the University, at its option, may require the employee to repay the full amount of the Supplementary Employment Benefits received during the entire period of the leave, and
- (d) should s/he leave the University's employ before the equivalent number of weeks of supplementary benefits have elapsed as provided under (c) above, the University, at its option, may require the employee to repay a proportion of such benefits equal to that proportion of the period in which the S.E.I.B benefits were provided and were not worked.

Benefit Adjustment

If the University determines that any benefit paid under the plan should not have been paid or should have been paid in a lesser amount, the amount of overpayment will be recovered from any subsequent benefit payable under the plan, or by making a deduction from any future monies payable by the University to the Employee.

Other Benefits

The Employee's portion of the applicable premiums and pension contributions would be deducted from the Supplementary Employment Benefit payments made by the University up to a maximum of seventeen (17) weeks.

Modifications

The University will inform Human Resources Development Canada of any changes in the plan within thirty (30) days of the effective date of the change.

Interpretation/Grievances

No question involving the interpretation or application of Human Resources Development Canada portion of the benefit will be subject to the formal grievance procedure provided for in the Collective Agreement between the University and NSGEU, acting as bargaining agent for the Employees covered by the plan.
