NSGEU

Cancer Support Fund

A fund created for members of the NSGEU or their immediate family who have been diagnosed with cancer and are in need of financial assistance.

The NSGEU Women's Issues Committee has worked with the Nova Scotia Cancer Centre and the QEII Foundation to create this fund.

When you or your family member is accessing this fund you must know what NSGEU local you belong to. If you aren't sure of your local, contact the NSGEU by calling 902-424-4063 (toll-free 1-877-556-7438) or emailing inquiry@nsgeu.ca.

Terms of the Fund:

Immediate family consists of: spouse, common-law partner, same-sex partner, children or parent. The latter bonds may be by blood or legal adoption.

Examples of what can be funded: travel costs, co-pay drugs, insurance payments, costs of lodging, utility payments, mortgage payments, food, services, groceries, drug costs. Requests from this fund will have a maximum ceiling amount of $200 per patient/family.

The NSGEU Cancer Support Fund will not replace any existing funding options available, but will be an extra avenue for support.

To access this fund, call the Nova Scotia Cancer Centre Social Worker at 902-473-6000.

Established by the NSGEU Women's Issues Committee.
