- 14.3 Changes to Individual Schedule

The Employer recognizes that short notice changes to an Employee's individual schedule is difficult and the Employer will make every reasonable effort to minimize schedule changes. Employer, provided twenty-four (24) hours' notice is given to the Employee and the Employee has been consulted.

- 14.4 Where a Designated Location has a split shift, and where the hours between the split shift become available, preference for filling the available hours shall be given to the Employee scheduled to work the split shift. A shift exchange shall not result in the payment of overtime or any other increased cost to the Employer, nor shall it result in a reduction in an Employee's bi-weekly contracted hours.
- 14.7 (a) The Employer shall ensure that no Full-Time Employee is regularly scheduled to work more than five (5) consecutive shifts in a two week pay period without at least two (2) consecutive days off (48 hours) unless mutually agreed otherwise between the Employee and Employer.

- (d) For the purpose of (a) and (b) above, a split shift shall be deemed a single shift.
- (e) Where an Employee is required to work rotating shifts, the day, evening, and night shifts will be assigned to Employees as equitably as possible. This does not preclude Employees from being continually assigned to an evening or night shift at their request where such continuing assignment is acceptable and agreed upon by the Employees involved and the Employer.

- (f) All Part-time Employees working a regular rotation will have weekends off scheduled as equitably as possible within their Designated Location. This does not preclude Employees from being continually assigned to working all weekends where such continuing assignment is acceptable and agreed upon by the Employees involved and the Employer.
 - (g) All full-time Employees working a regular rotation will have at least two weekends off per month, subject to operational requirements.
- 14.8 It is the sole responsibility of the Employer to schedule the hours of work of Employees as long as it does not contravene the express requirements of this contract.

- (b) For Permanent Part-Time Employees, all hours worked in excess of eighty-eight (88) hours in a bi-weekly pay period shall be compensated at the Employee's overtime rate.
