Workers experiencing intimate partner violence shall be considered for paid leave in accordance with Article 21 and as outlined in the policy.

ARTICLE 21 - SICK LEAVE

21.01 Sick Leave Defined

- (a) Sick leave means the period of time an Employee is unable to fulfill work obligations due to sickness or disability, is confined by a doctor's order, or under treatment of a physician, or medical professional, or was injured in an accident for which workers' compensation is not payable. Employees will be entitled to use one of their days accumulated pursuant to Article 21.07(a) a Mental Health Wellness Day.

- (b) "Unable to fulfil work obligations due to sickness or disability" means that it is the Employee who is sick or disabled and is unable to fulfill work obligations, and includes a sickness or disability of a member of the Employee's family only to the extent defined by Article 20.04, Leave for Family Illness
- (c) Subject to Article 20.15, "Unable to fulfill work obligations due to sickness or disability" does not include an employee's attendance at routine, annual, semi-annual, or other regularly scheduled appointments, check-ups, or treatments of an ongoing and non-emergent nature, such as physiotherapy, massage therapy, or other therapies where the Employee can schedule treatments in advance. However, the Employer will continue to grant sick leave to employees for appointments that are of an emergency or urgent nature, and to attend medical specialist appointments that cannot be easily scheduled or rescheduled.
- (d) The Employer will grant sick leave to Employees when all of the conditions of Article 21.01 or Article 20.15 exist.

21.03 Physician Designated by Employer

The Union recognizes the Employer's right to have a physician designated by the Employer examine any Employee who is on sick leave.

21.04 Medical Examination

The Employer may require any Employee to submit to medical examination prior to a return to work to confirm fitness to resume duty. The Employer shall reimburse up to $50 per year per Employee upon presentation of a receipt for payment for documentation confirming fitness to resume duty.

21.05 Employer to Pay Cost of Medical Examination

Where, pursuant to this Agreement, the Employer requires an Employee to submit to an independent medical examination, the Employer shall be responsible for paying these costs.

21.06 Medical Certificate

An Employee may be required by the Employer to produce the Employer's form of "medical certificate", from a physician for any period of absence for which sick leave is claimed by an Employee. If the Employer's form of certificate is not produced, as requested by the Employer, the Employee shall be ineligible to receive pay for the time absent from work, even when sick leave accumulation is available. In the event of long-term absence, the Employer's form of "medical certificate" from a physician will be required to cover the entire period for which sick leave is claimed, even where sick accumulation is exhausted. The Employer shall pay up to $50 per year per Employee if the Employer makes this request.

21.07 Accumulation of Sick Leave Credits

- (b) The Employer shall maintain confidentiality with regard to an Employee's medical documentation. This shall not preclude the Employer from reviewing medical records with legal counsel or with medical professionals should the need arise (i.e. arbitration or a return to work following an illness).

21.09 For greater clarity, the payment of up to $50 under Article 21.04 and 21.06 is a total cumulative per Employee, annually, and not $50 per request or per form.

ARTICLE 22 - LAYOFF, RESIGNATION OR DISCHARGE

In addition, any additional shifts shall first be offered to laid off Employees before the hours are offered to a casual Employee. Layoff shall be a termination of employment and recall rights shall lapse if the layoff lasts for more than twelve (12) consecutive months without recall.
- (b) During such periods of casual work, the Employee shall remain on the recall list, and once the casual work is completed, the Employee shall remain on layoff, with recall rights being unaffected by the offer or acceptance of casual work.

22.07 Response to Recall

An Employee who is employed with another Employer at the time of recall shall give the Employer notice of their intention to return to work and shall return to the services of the Employer within two (2) weeks of notice of recall. If the Employee fails to return at that time, their name will be struck from the Seniority list and their employment will be deemed to be terminated.

An Employee on layoff shall be responsible for providing the Employer with their most recent address and telephone number.

22.09 Notice of Layoff

When any dispute cannot be settled by the foregoing informal procedure, it shall be deemed to be a "grievance", and the Residential Supervisor shall be notified accordingly.
