Work-Life Balance: Make It Your Business!

Founder of Shanti Hot Yoga (SHY), Uriel MacGillivray knows first-hand about the stresses of holding a corporate management position, travel, and the demands of raising a family entrenched in team sports. It was go, go go during those years. Although leading a healthy active lifestyle something was missing.

“ I was tired of staring at the equipment at the gym and counting repetitions in my head. Yoga practice allowed me to be present in the moment and taught me how to breathe. Immediately my family and co-workers noticed the positive changes. I became calmer and more effective at making decisions at work. My work productivity and creativeness increased and my stress levels decreased. ”

Seven years and three yoga studios later, Uriel is excited to offer HRM businesses a solution that hits right at the heart of work-life balance!

Why Yoga?

Yoga is a solution to the top three health reasons why employees miss work!

Health is a state of complete harmony of the body, mind and spirit.

When one is free from physical disabilities and mental distractions, the gates of the soul open. ”

~B.K.S. Iyengar

Employers have the power to create a culture of health
consciousness—
and it's good business to do so.”
~Uriel MacGillivray

Return on investment

Reduced absenteeism | Improved work performance | Decreased health insurance premiums

Employers who promote yoga as part of their wellness initiatives are providing preventative health alternatives and the payoff is huge. Yoga is a holistic approach to a healthy body and a healthy mind and it directly improves stress levels, the number one health risk for Canadian Companies.
